

Volunteer with the Lawyer Referral Service

The Lawyer Referral Service is a collaboration between the Law Society of PEI and Community Legal Information Association (CLIA). Islanders can call CLIA and receive a referral to a lawyer who meets with the client for up to 45 minutes for $25.00 plus tax. There are no obligations after the 45 minute consultation.

This service is in high demand. Many people are overwhelmed and confused by the legal system. We often hear back from clients who express their gratitude for the advice they receive. The lawyers who participate have a significant impact on Islanders' lives. Please join us!
